

Daniel P, Walsh, Class of 1987
Banking, Real Estate and Urban Development Executive

Dan graduated from Valley Forge in 1987. He went to Case Western Reserve University and law school in Chicago. Dan served in many positions at Huntington Bank until 2015 when he left as Regional President to form his own real estate development company, Citymark Capital.

He served as the President of Greater Cleveland Region at Huntington Bancshares Inc. and The Huntington National Bank since April 2010 until January 2015. Mr. Walsh served as the Managing Director of KeyBank Real Estate Capital. He began his career with KeyBank in 1996 and progressed successfully with that organization, holding positions of increasing scope and responsibility throughout his tenure. He also serves as a Director of the National Multi-Housing Council and the Northeast Ohio Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation.

He has been a Director of Greater Cleveland Partnership since March 2012 and The Cleveland Foundation since April 1, 2016. He serves on several area nonprofit boards including the Cleveland Museum of Art, Cleveland Orchestra, Playhouse Square, Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum, and United Way. He also serves as Chairman of the Board of Destination Cleveland and was Mayor Frank Jackson's appointee to the Group Plan Commission. He also holds his Juris Doctor degree from the Illinois Institute of Technology Chicago-Kent College of Law, with a certification in environmental and energy law practice. Mr. Walsh received his Bachelor's Degree in Management and MBA from the Case Western Reserve University Weatherhead School of Management (Cleveland, Ohio).